11 Days to Pray:

“Thy Kingdom Come”

2020

Thursday May 21st (Ascension) – Sunday May 31st (Pentecost)

The main focus of “Thy Kingdom Come” is for each of us to pray for 5 people to come into God’s Kingdom.

I am praying for:

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

You may find the prayers on the following pages helpful as you pray for your 5 people.

Praying for Five

Try taking a piece of string or cord and tie 5 knots in it. Tie it around your wrist as a reminder to pray for your 5 people each day during “Thy Kingdom Come.”

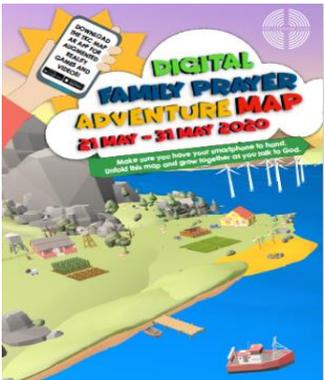

We would like to create a picture of members of the church wearing their prayer “bracelets,” so if you are able to, please take a picture of your wrist, a bit like the one of the left, and send it to Alan via text or WhatsApp at 07543 500483

Prayer app

“Thy Kingdom Come” has a prayer app that you can load onto your smartphone. Once you have downloaded the app, you can access daily prayers, readings and videos through the 11 days of this prayer initiative.

Digital Family Prayer Adventure Mat

Families are receiving “Thy Kingdom Come” prayer mats. Do let us know how you get on using them. You could post on Twitter using the hashtag #m2odoingchurchdifferently or post to our Facebook page @m2ochurchrugby
